

2nd Annual McCook Art Guild Photography Show

Rules

The show is for art works that meet the following criteria: Must be original work not entered in a previous McCook Art Guild photography show. No work done in a class or workshop or done under the guidance of an instructor, no copies of other artist work, published work or copyrighted material, or photographs or other art work is allowed for entry. All art must be suitably framed not exceeding 40 inches in any dimension. All art work is to use a wire to allow proper hanging of the art pieces, no saw tooth hangers are to be used for hanging the art work.

Judges Statement

“I look for a feeling or sole in a photograph. I really want to have a connection with it and that can come from many places in a photograph. Photography is an art because it can make people feel something special.”

Cody Dame was born and raised in McCook. He attended Webster University in Saint Louis, Missouri majoring in film studies. Upon returning to McCook he has owned and operated Divine Productions with a strong emphasis in videography in 2001 and later added photography services in 2002.

McCook Art Guild is not responsible for any loss or damages to submitted artwork. Each artist is responsible for his/her own insurance.

Entries

Entries will be accepted at the McCook Art Guild's Fine Art Center, 209 Norris Ave. during normal working hours from Tuesday February 13 thru February 17. Judging will be on Saturday morning February 18 followed by a public reception from 1:00pm to 4:00pm at the guild. All entries will be on public display during regular business hours, Tuesday and Saturday 10:00am to 4:00pm. On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday business hours are from 1:00pm to 4:00pm.
